

New Improved: Prestressing of Precast Concrete Training

Meeting the requirements of the revised ACOP in conjunction with BPCF and the Precast Concrete Industry. Be prepared for the changes: REGISTER NOW

Train the Assessor

Courses available now via online sessions

CLICK TO REGISTER NOW: to upskill your management team with the abilities to assess your workforce as part of the recommended guidelines

Get the national stamp of approval on your training & assessments with Proskills Global.

Ensuring quality and a standardisation benefit for the precast concrete industry as a whole.

New Procedures

- H&S induction registration process "Right Start"
- On the job training & assessments delivered by managers in-house
- Work Activities Logs
- Practical assessment competence observation
- Annual Refresher Assessments
- 5 year training expiration dates

Quality Assurance & Certification Services

Centralised secure database, providing internationally recognised certification & licencing services, adding value and professional recognition to the training and certificates.

Accredited training partners with years of experience and knowledge ensure the training delivered is to the highest satisfaction

Why not Train the Trainer and keep your training in-house

- Become an Approved Partner for Proskills Global's QA scheme
- Undertake Train the Trainer and or Train the Assessor courses
- Deliver and assess the prestressing training programme in-house
- Annual QA audits ensures your training delivery remains at a high standard